Background & Experience

Alan Bashein joined American Business in 2022. He was attracted to American Business' high-end boutique business operation and inspired by the care and attention American Business pays to their clients and advisors.

Getting a first-hand experience in the medical industry Alan understand the needs of physicians and surgeons. Their main goal is the care of others' wellbeing, while Alan's goal is to focus on their insurance needs.

Prior to joining American Business, Alan worked at a local insurance firm for five years. He currently holds his Life, Health, and Annuity licenses as well as his Series 6 and 63.

Alan resides in Fort Lauderdale, FL. He enjoys spending time golfing, boating and attending sporting events with his father, a highly regarded urologist in Palm Beach, FL.

Outside of the office, Alan enjoys playing roller hockey, golf and watching European sporting events. His passion for European sporting events, international cuisine and culture has given him the opportunity to travel abroad to experience many of his favorite cities such as Amsterdam, Munich, Prague and Lisbon just to name a few.
