

Amy N. Hochfelsen, JD, AIF
President/CEO
Skye Legacy Planning, LLC
500 Bi County Blvd. Suite 465
Farmingdale, NY 11735
anh@skye-legacy.com
(631) 801-6028

Background & Experience

Amy N. Hochfelsen is a second-generation lawyer, insurance and financial professional. Amy's professional concentration is in the area of risk management. She holds various insurance and securities (FINRA) licenses and is an Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIF). She additionally has a background in Public Relations.

Amy's efforts focus on management of company operations, business development, advising clients with respect to their personal and business financial, retirement and insurance planning. She innovatively creates tailored insurance programs for a client's specific needs.

Amy is an active member of PLAN (Professional Life Advisors Network), focusing on disability and life insurance programs to assist Financial Advisors in large National financial institutions with their client needs. She is also a frequent lecturer on these topics.

Amy's academic achievements consist of a Bachelor of Arts from Hofstra University, and a Juris Doctor from Hofstra University School of Law. Amy is an active participant in charitable organizations such as Cancer Research & Treatment, Inc. (Cornell-Weill Medical Center), Jocelyn's Holiday Spirit, Visions, PHCC Charity Foundation, and NYBKW Charitable Foundation (Cohen's Children Hospital).

Certifications & Education

- Hofstra University School of Law, Hempstead, NY – Juris Doctor, 2010
- Hofstra University – Bachelor of Arts, Public Relations & Psychology, 2005