Background & Experience

Deborah has worked as an insurance professional since 2004. She excels at building meaningful connections with clients to tailor solutions that meet their unique needs. Her collaborative approach has earned her the respect of estate planning attorneys and financial professionals, who appreciate her ability to integrate complex financial elements into comprehensive plans.

Deborah leads a team of experts with a consultative approach. She prioritizes a deep understanding of client requirements to deliver personalized planning solutions. Her focus areas include business planning, estate planning, wealth planning, long-term care planning, supplemental retirement planning, and competitive analysis.

Deborah holds a Bachelor of Science in Business from the University of Wisconsin-Stout, with concentrations in Marketing and Management. She has also earned a certification in Foundations of Investment Management from the prestigious Wharton School of Business. Professionally, Deborah is licensed with FINRA Series 6 and 63 securities licenses, along with multiple insurance licenses. She is a valued DuPage County, IL Estate Planning Council member.
