Background & Experience

Paul J. Rodden is the Director, Business Development for Ash Brokerage. In his current role, Paul is focused on building relationships and ensuring that advisors have the resources available to meet client goals, while leveraging Paul's 11 years of industry experience.

Paul enjoys all aspects of the insurance planning process, but he especially enjoys building relationships with individuals in the financial planning industry while working as part of their team or simply as a resource. You can expect nothing but superior concierge level service when leveraging his expertise in insurance and protection.

Prior to joining Ash, Paul served as the President of HighPointe Financial Group, a MassMutual Firm, dedicated to providing holistic financial planning, wealth management, and comprehensive insurance strategies through a network of experienced professionals. At HighPointe, Paul was responsible for overseeing the insurance distribution among 55 advisors, 400 brokers and 23,000 clients nationwide.

Paul earned his bachelor's degree in Biology from Bates College, in Lewiston, Maine. He holds a master's from Boston University.

Paul lives in Kansas City, Mo with his wife and two children. When not working, he serves on two local Boards and enjoys all things outdoors, football and baseball.
